

ATTRACTIONS AROUND HYDERABAD / SECUNDERABAD

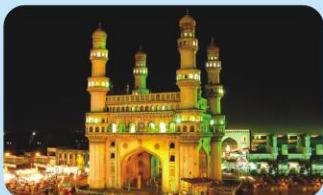

Hussain Sagar

Tank bund road was Built in the 16th century. The lake was named to express the gratitude of Ibrahim Quli Qutub Shah to Hussain Shah Wali who helped him to recover from illness.

Charminar

Sultan Muhammad Quli Qutub Shah, the 5th ruler of the Qutub Shahi dynasty built Charminar in 1591 shortly after he had shifted his capital from Golkonda to what is now known as Hyderabad.

Ramoji Film City

The 1666-acre Ramoji Film City (RFC), established by the Ramoji Group amid the alluring grandeur of Nature, is the world's largest integrated film studio complex.

Golkonda

Golkonda (called in Telugu as Gollakonda) a ruined city of south-central India and capital of ancient Kingdom of Golkonda (1364-1512), is situated west of Hyderabad.

Balaji Temple

Balaji Temple of Birla Mandir is a Hindu temple of Lord Venkateshwara, built entirely of white marble. The temple manifests a blend of South Indian, Rajasthani & Utkala temple architectures.

Salarjung Museum

The Salarjung Museum is the third largest museum in India housing the biggest one-man collection of antiques in the world.

XD₃

Cholecalciferol 60000 IU Granules

The Essential Vitamin

In

- Idiopathic Pain
- Low back Pain
- Fractures
- Osteoporosis

Also available

4F10, Ballad Estates, Tarnaka, Secunderabad-17. Tel: +91-40-27007049, 27014541, Fax: +91-40-27014274. Web: www.pulsepharma.net

Invitation

5th Congress of IORA

2nd & 3rd February, 2013

INDIAN ORTHOPAEDIC
RHEUMATOLOGY ASSOCIATION

Organising Chairman
AP State Co-ordinator
Prof. Dr. A. Srinivasa Rao
Emeritus Professor, Gandhi Medical College

Organising Secretary
Prof. Dr. B. Ravi Babu
Professor & HOD of Orthopaedics,
Gandhi Medical College, Secunderabad

Venue:
ALUMNI AUDITORIUM
Gandhi Medical College, Secunderabad

Organized under the auspices of
Orthopaedic Trust, Gandhi Hospital &
Twin Cities Orthopedic Society (TCOS)